"I'm not going to school today."
"I hate this place."
"We don't learn anything here."

Think about it. At one time or another during our thirteen years of school every student has mumbled or screamed such frustrating remarks, whether it be on the day of a big history presentation, a gloomy Monday in March, or one of those sunny spring days when sitting in a classroom is the last place you want to be. Complaining about school is an unwritten yet universal student right.

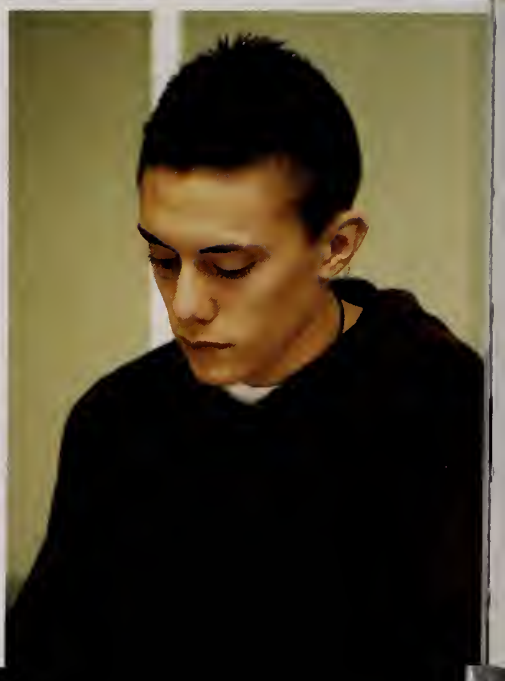
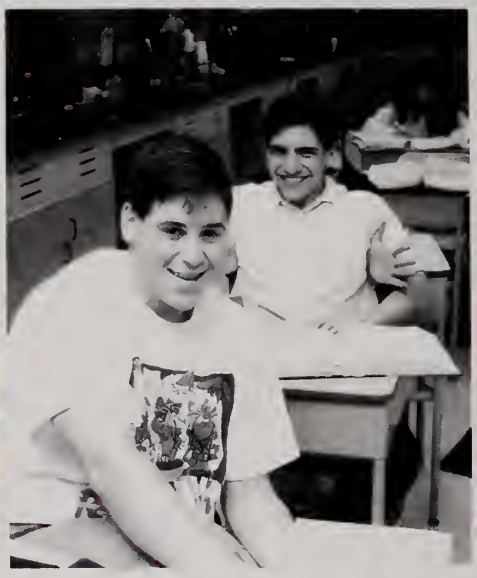
Then think about the first day of school. It's exciting. We wear crisp, bright new outfits, sport new suntans and hairdos, and are eager to catch up on the past few months with our friends. As glad as we were to see summer come, most of us are ready to see it go and to begin our education once again.

seniors



The first day of classes ends, and with those first few homework assignments comes the recognition of what is yet to come. In only six hours, a summer's worth of anticipation has been exhausted, and suddenly, the return to school has lost its novelty.

But what about the other one hundred and seventy-nine days.....



One hundred and seventy-nine complaint-filled days of buzzing alarm clocks, late passes, broken lockers, failed tests, detentions and report cards. But these are also one hundred and seventy nine days of friendship, growth, and discovery. Though we many find these days filled with temporary setbacks, the positives of our school years will long outlast the negatives.

Finally, think about the last day of school. It is just as exciting as the first, and just as the joys of summer ended with the first day of school, with the final bell of the school year, so ends the pressure and anxiety of the past few months. But what remains? What will we remember?

Our efforts to learn, coupled with the instruction we received from our teachers, has shaped our high school experience. Each of us has grown during these four years, and believe it or not, we have certainly learned a lot.

And because of this, we do not remember our complaints, or the stress. We remember the friends we've made, the teachers we've had, the experiences we've shared, but most of all the things we have learned at Sharon High.

The Boys had rented their tuxedos, the girls had covered themselves in chiffon, taffeta, and sequins. This was not like any other prom. It was ours: Prom 93. The gym was transformed and whispered "Midnight Magic" to all who entered. As night progressed, we awaited the announcement of the prom court, which included Michelle Breitman, Sara Cheyer, Emily Fishbein, and Rachel Halle. Dana Kay was selected as Prom Queen, along with Aaron August as her King. As the night came to a close, we danced to our song, "These Are the Times to Remember" and looking around, we knew we would not forget this night — our night. The evening that we had been looking forward to for so long, May 15, 1993, had come and gone, but the memories of that very special night will stay with us for a long, long time.

"For me teaching is not a profession; it's a way of life."

— Chappuisim

For thirty-five years, Mr. Roger Chappuis has blessed the Sharon School System with his gift for teaching. As someone who was born and raised in Paris, he has not only taught us the language, but also educated us about the culture of France. One minute, Mr. Chappuis demonstrated how to make sense of le present du subjonctif, and the next, he was describing the purplish pink color of the sunset as it hits the water of the Seine. His class was not only about the French language, but also about French philosophy, literature, art and classical music. One of his colleagues, amazed at how knowledgeable Mr. Chappuis is about everything, concluded that, "Chappuis knows all." He is the type of person who gets really enthused when asked a question and doesn't give up until he has given us precisely the right answer. Mr. Chappuis' forte was making up extremely funny and clever puns that made us laugh when we were having a particularly hard day at school, and his gift for being a remarkable raconteur was greatly appreciated. For these reasons and more, we dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Roger Chappuis. Room 509 will seem a lot emptier next year, without Mr. Chappius' smile to light our hearts and our minds.

Au Revoir Mon Bon Prof! Vous nous manquerez!

Different people have various ideas as to what makes a good teacher. Some people value thoroughness and the amount of information taught, others popularity, and cordial relations with students and peers. It is a rare educator who is able to combine these traits as George Anthony has. As an American history teacher, he has opened the eyes of hundreds of students to such people as Frederick Jackson Turner and W.E.B. DuBois, brainstormed the infamous "Civil War Graph," and made his class one of the school's most difficult. Ask any of his students, and they will say that they learned more in his class than in any other. At the same time however, Mr. A. was among the most easy-going and popular teachers. Students joked with him in the classrooms and halls, and former students often dropped by his office. This year, Mr. Anthony became our new vice-principal, and in between sips from the omnipresent coffee mug, he has remained serious and professional (although sans moustache), all the while joking around with former students and teachers in a very "un-principal like" manner. We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Anthony, extend hope that he continues to do his job in his inimitable way, never forgets his sense of humor, and always "lets the reader decide."

As usual, the girls had another winning season, capturing the Hockomock League title with a flawless record of 16-0. The team was led by co-captains Beth Mann, Sandra O'Sullivan, Valerie Bennett, and Kati Gardos, who, along with Marian Hood, Meredith Quimby, and Robin O'Sullivan, displayed the determination, talent, and desire which have become the team's trademark. Special thanks to Coach Cronin, and good luck to next years team.

Team effort and individual committment propelled the 1993 boy's tennis team to the South Sectional Championship. Led by strong tri captains Marc Goldberg, Geoff Waller, and Matt Arkin, the team rallied to a 20-1 overall record. Last year's freshmen, Adam Harris, Joe Sigal, and Dan Levine to mention but a few, demonstrated outstanding ability. With the 1994 co-captains Jerry Shaw and Yoni Rubenstein, the team looks forward to continued success.

The 1993 boys track team enjoyed its most successful season in years, finishing 7-1, and second in the Hockomock League. Short and middle-distance events were the teams strength; with seniors Mike Yutzy, Brad MacDonald, Tim Andrade, and John Lloyd striding to numerous victories. Talented underclassmen Troy Dorcy, Josh Hoch, Clay Pressley, Rahsaan Janey and Todd Lieberman also posted many top rated finishes. The team's long-distance crew of John Lehman, Dan Reichman, Josh Levitt, Zach Dewhirst, and Eric Stich also enjoyed success, as did throwers Jason Saphire, Jeremy Levine, Mike Drobnis, and Mike Kinney. With continued hard work and a bit of luck, Mr. Norris and the squad should have another successful season in '94.

The girls team had several top-notch performances. Helene Rubin, Ashley Villani, Lauren Santoli, and captain Claire Kinney all made strong contributions in the distance events, while Marquette Tyree was the team's top sprinter, earning excellent finishes in both the Hockomock and South Shore Meets. The team's many underclassmen show promise which should lead to a great showing next year.

Despite a disappointing season, that had the team working diligently to improve their game, the softball team had a great deal of fun under the patient leadership of Coach Regan. Senior tri-captains Amy Nichol, Sandi Kerble, and Lani Blumenthal helped the team with both leadership and spirit, while juniors Kelly MacDougall, and Maeci Egan, as well as sophomore Jill Flannery added to the starting lineup. Best of luck to the '94 team.

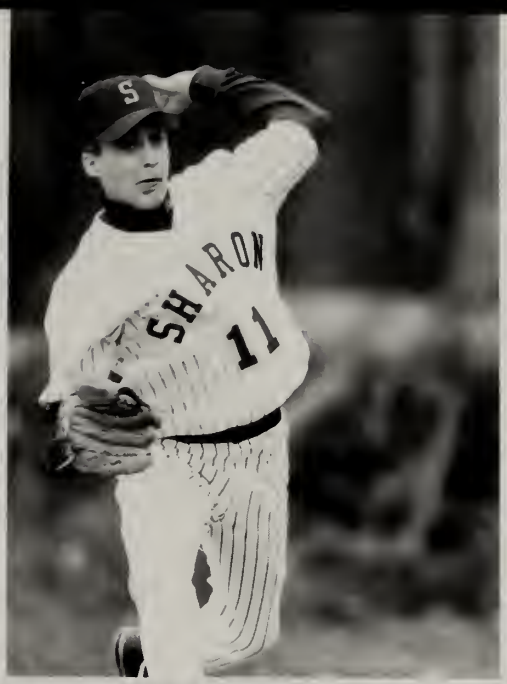
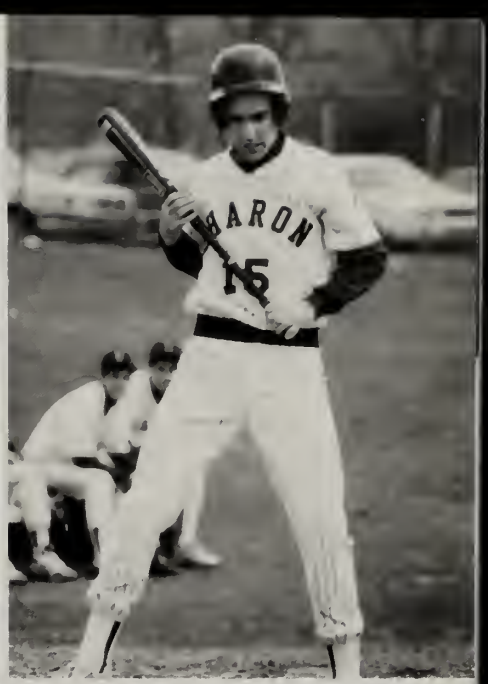
Top Row: Coach Peckham, Lee Mish, David Soloman, Randy Gerson, Jeffrey Weingast, Jared Weiner, Dan Slavsky, Josh Egan, Coach Morris, and Jason Doherty.





The 1993 Sharon High Baseball team played well on their way to qualifying for the state tournament. Both the fielding and the hitting of the team were great, under the watchful eyes of coaches Peckham and Morris. The pitching was also exceptional, lead by captain Chris Kamp, who was among the league leaders in wins, strikeouts, and E.R.A. Helping the pitching staff were junior Seth Grossman, and sophomores Lee Mish and David Soloman. The infield had few errors, with power hitting senior Mark Meleger at first base, senior Mike Kingsley at second base, captain Thor VanVaerenewyck at short-stop, and Mish at third base. The outfield was led by senior Larry Silver, Kamp, Grossman, and Dan Slavsky. Captain Adam Yas played superbly behind the plate, throwing many opposing base runners out. This team took advantage of their great talent, and soared to the top of the Hockomock League.

The golf team's record this season does not reflect the hard work and effort they put in throughout the year. Seniors Mike Ross and John Starr led the team, and were helped by Steve Jordan, as well as underclassmen Yan Katz and Dave Noble. This young team, under the watchful eye of Coach Pane, should show great improvement in years to come.

1993 was a season to remember for the boys soccer team. For the first time in history, the squad was Hockomock League champion, finishing the regular season with an undefeated 16-0 record. Senior tri-captains Jared Dewey, Dennis Ofori, and Todd Liberman led the team on both ends of the field, with Dewey, who was voted Hockomock MVP, and Ofori finishing at the top of the league in scoring. They were selected as Hockomock All-Stars along with senior Scott Frye. Also integral to the teams success were senior starters Paul Connors, Chris Lawler, and Dave Lemovitz. Junior Jason Doherty held opposing teams in check, finishing the season as the number 1 goalkeeper in the league. Eric Stich, Greg Potter, Zach Dewhirst, and Eric Chorney all played well throughout the season, but it was the overall team effort that made the Eagles champions.

This season, the Sharon Girl's Soccer team showed everyone what it meant to be an athlete. Coach Medeiros provided them with discipline, skill, and experienced instruction, and in return, the team gave him hard work, determination, and a lot of heart. The squad played hard against every Hockomock League opponent, and managed to attain a hard fought victory over undefeated Foxboro. They ended the season with an impressive record of 10-5-2, making it to the second round of the state tournament, and demonstrating what a dynamic team they had become. The 1993 season was one which none of the players will ever forget. Seniors Kelly MacDougall, Carolyn Devasto, Meredith Quimby, Lesley Goober, Paula Sugarman, and Sara Cheyer wish the team continued success in the future.

The boys cross country team finished the regular season with a 3-5 record, with victories over Canton, Franklin, and North Attleboro, but it wasn't until the post-season that they realized their full potential. The group finished third in the Hockomock League meet, eighth in the South Shore, and thirteenth in the state. Senior captains Dan Reichman and Josh Levitt provided both leadership and speed for the young team, while juniors Eric Feigan and Chris Byrne, sophomore Jared Van-Vaerenewyck, and freshmen Ross Krachey, Eric Fireman, and Brian Stanislaus will all return next year. With more hard work they should make the team a contender.

The girls X-C squad had a fun season, led by senior Meera Mathur and junior star Ashley Villani, who won all but one regular season meet. She continued her winning ways through the post-season as well, winning the Hocomock League meet, being voted league MVP, finishing second in the South Shore, and third in Division III. Senior Rebecca Steckel also ran well, as did the team's many freshmen. Best of luck for a great season in '94.

Contrary to the record, the girls' field hockey team finished another season this year, suffering most of their losses by a mere one or two goals. Tri-captains, Theresa Sullivan, Stacey Block, and Jamey Quinto, led the team with enthusiasm, spirit and patience. While seniors, Alane Trotta, Jaime Van Vaerenwyck, Julie Sweetman, and Jill Berger made strong contributions.

Prospects look good for the young team. Strong performances have already been shown by players from both the junior and sophomore classes. All-Hockomock player Robin O'Sullivan shined at center-half, while juniors Sara Mayer, Mary Reichman, and Jen Berish played hard on the offense. Junior Nicole Nascenzi turned out another excellent season as goalie.

The team would like to thank Coach Decas and Coach Mather for their dedication and encouragement. Best of luck in '94!!

The Sharon High football team finished another hard-hitting season with a record of 2-7-1. The Eagles started the season winning their first two games, and finished the season in a sub-arctic Thanksgiving Day rumble. The Eagles were led by co-captains Randy Gerson and Long Tieu, quarterback Mike Kinney, linebacker Jamie Slavet, linemen Ed Sherlock, Mike Schubert, Dean Santoli, and Jon Bluestein, as well as linebacker Daryn Freedman, receiver Mark Bernard, cornerback Ed Belenky, and kicker Chad Asnes.

The girls basketball team has shined on the court early in the season, racking up a 5-0 record. Senior Kelly MacDougall has been the team's chief offensive threat, reaching the 1000 point milestone against Lincoln-Sudbury. The talent and experience of seniors Dana Kay and Jamie VanVaerenewyck has also helped to lead the team to its many victories, while junior Naomi Dershewitz, and freshman Nicole Sullivan have also played well. As the team looks toward the tournament, hopes are high for all-around success in '94.

With nearly all of last year's team having graduated, the 93-94 Eagles team was composed almost entirely of new faces. Senior captains Dennis Ofori and Clay Pressley returned to lead the team on both ends of the court, with junior forwards Mike Schantz and Dave Solomon, and point guard Lee Mish rounding out the starting lineup. Despite the early-season injury of Ofori, the team hit its stride, defeating North Attleboro and winning the Holiday Tournament. With any luck, the team should continue to play well, and enjoy continued success throughout the season.

The gymnastics team has begun the season with a 2-2 record, with wins over Foxboro and North Attleboro. Juniors Allison Levine and Tara Zenack, and sophomores Jodi Kraus and Liz Loring have led the team with high scores in the floor exercise, vault, and beam. Under coach Karen Horan, this young team should enjoy great seasons in '94 and beyond.

The 93-94 wrestling team is in shape and primed for another season of grappling. Captains J.P. Katz and Pete Tillman, seniors Mike Kinney, and Matt Barmash, and juniors Matt Rudenstein and Craig Freeman are ready to lead the team into battle against their always tough Hockomock League opponents. They began the season with a strong win over Canton and under the strict command of coaches Rob O'Donnell and Joe Spruce, several team members should be able to place highly in the South Sectional and State Meets.

This year's swim team started the season with a splash! Led by captains Paula Sugarman and John Ristuccia, the team was eager to win. With the help of the seniors, everyone on the team tried hard, learned a lot, and had a good time. The team would like to thank Mrs. Lampert for all her time, support, and great coaching. halloween

Halloween turned out to be a fun and spirited day for the whole school, as most students arrived in costume, attended the now-infamous assembly, and returned that night for the Halloween Dance. The senior class won the overall Spirit Award, while the sophomores had the largest number of students in costume. Many seniors made Halloween into a more meaningful occasion by collecting canned food for the hungry on Sunday night. Through their efforts, the seniors managed to collect hundreds of cans for area food banks, and the weekend ended as an overall success.

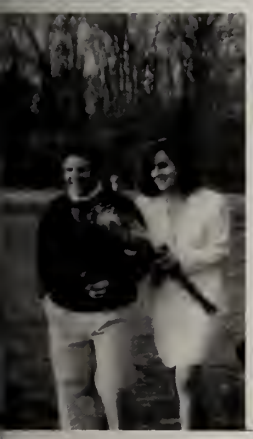
Senior Homecoming Queen and Court: Paul Connors, Meredith Quimby, Neil Mehta, Emily Fishbein, Stacey Block, Queen, Eric Stich, King, Natasha Buconjic, Brendan Blumenstiel, Scott Frye, and Maeci Egan.



The numbing cold on Thanksgiving Day did not stop the crowd from having a great time at this year's homecoming game. Not only was the game exciting, but the halftime activities included a number of outstanding floats and the presentation of the Homecoming Queen and her court. The float competition was won by the seniors with their eagle's head, which was outstanding. Although the Eagles lost to the Tigers, they will never lose their winning spirit or our support.

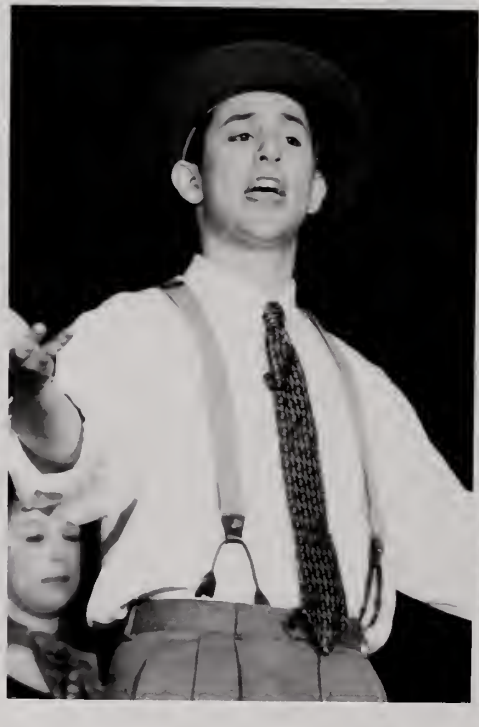
You could sense the excitement and hear the enthusiasm as the house lights dimmmed. The spotlights followed each of the revved up players as they ran down the aisles to the stage. Long Tieu, Randy Gerson, Ed Sherlock, Mike Kinney, Jamie Slavet, Dean Santoli, Jon Bluestein, Mike Schubert, Mark Bernard, Daryn Freedman, Chad Asnes, Eddie Belenky and the rest of the team were all excited to participate in the pep rally.

The festivities included the cheerleaders in a spirit-lifting dance, the gymnastics team in a dazzling show of talent, the senior boys in a hilarious yet skillful skit as "The Real Cheerleaders" and the senior girls in a witty and entertaining song that showed their support of the Football Players. The pep rally proved that the school is always behind the team.

The Pajama Game



In the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory fabric is flying, time is wasting, daggers are soaring, and seven and one half cents is the union cry. "The Pajama Game" is the game they were in, through a winter of snow and missed rehearsals, into a late spring of music, dance, and pajamas, the Drama Club successfully recreated the romance and comedy of this wonderful musical. Congratulations once again to the cast and crew for another job well done.

noises off

"And I take the sardines. No I leave the sardines. No, no I take the sardines." Slam . . . with these words, we are brought into the comical play, Noises Off. After months of rehearsals and building sets, it's opening night, after night, after night. Both on stage and off, this mad-cap comedy involving sardines, burglars, and love triangles leaves the audience hilariously confused by the final curtain. Congratulations to both the casts and the crew on another successful presentation.
